ROANOKE. VA., August 15.—Norfolk took the first game of the double-header to-ay from Reanoke by the score of 5 to 2. Cassidy's inability to field his position in the third inning was responsible for defeat. Jordan, of Norfolk, pitched a good game. A base on balls, a single and a sacrifice hit scored Reanoke's first run, and the other was made in the ninth, when the locals made three clean hits, which netted a run. A feature of the game was Jordan's steady work. McMahon, at shortstop, did some fine work, while Brown and Juckson, in center, covered a lot of ground. The second game was called in the third inning on account of rain, with the score 1 to 0 in Norfolk's favor. Score-by innings:

Porter, Kenna. and Kap: for Richmond. Burnette and Elmore. Judge George Watts Morris, of Charlottesyille, sitting for Judge Henry Holt, of the Corporation Court of Staunton. has handed down a decision in the much discussed police justice case, deciding that Hon. Joseph A. Glasgow is the lawful police justice of Staunton, and not Colonel H. H. Wayt, who was recently appointed by the City Council to succeed Mr. Glasgow. Judge Morris, in his opinion, decides that the City Council did not have the appointive power, and that Mr. Glasgow holds over from his appointive term to the next general election of city officers, which will be three years hence. Colonel Wayt will appeal the case.
